To Whom It May Concern:

Avila University's School of Education has partnered with Advancement Courses, Inc. to offer courses for teachers at the graduate level for their continuing education needs. These courses may be accepted, up to a maximum of nine* credit hours, as elective credits in the hybrid-format Master of Arts in Education – Teaching and Learning degree at Avila University. (**Kansas City metro area teachers may only apply three credits hours.*)

Courses are reflected on an official transcript as graduate credit from the School of Education upon successful completion.

Avila graduate programs are highly regarded in the field of education, and our students consistently express how our programs prepare them for positions of leadership and success in their own classrooms. Avila University is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission, and the School of Education is nationally accredited by CAEP. We are also accredited by the Missouri Department of Elementary and Secondary Education.

If you have any questions, please call or e-mail: (816) 501-2464, cory.roup@avila.edu.

Thank you for choosing Avila University!
