

COLORADO CHRISTIAN UNIVERSITY

Grace and Truth

To Whom It May Concern:

Colorado Christian University – College of Adult and Graduate Studies (CCU) and Advancement Courses, Inc. have partnered together to offer courses for teachers at the graduate level for their continuing education needs. The courses offered through this partnership can be petitioned into a degree program if the student decides to pursue higher education at CCU. Advancement Courses are reflected on a CCU official transcript as graduate level credit upon successful completion.

To enroll or learn more about the courses offered thorough this partnership, visit advancementcourses.com/courses.

Visit ccu.edu/advancement-courses to learn more about the graduate degree programs your credits may apply to at Colorado Christian University.

CCU has been regionally accredited by the Higher Learning Commission (HLC) since 1981, with reaffirmation of accreditation in 2020.

CCU's teacher preparation licensure programs are approved by the Colorado Department of Education, Colorado Department of Higher Education, and Colorado State Board of Education. CCU is also nationally endorsed by the Association of Christian Schools International (ACSI).

CCU is a member of the Council for Christian Colleges and Universities, Council of Independent Colleges, Evangelical Council for Financial Accountability, National Association of Independent Colleges and Universities, and the National Council for State Authorization Reciprocity Agreement (NC- SARA).

Questions regarding Advancement courses that are recognized by CCU should be directed to the CCU Admissions Support Office at admissionssupport@ccu.edu.

Thank you for choosing Colorado Christian University!
