

Andrews University

June 1, 2022

To Whom it May Concern:

The School of Education at Andrews University and Advancement Courses have a partnership to offer courses for teachers at the graduate level for their continuing education needs. These courses have been approved and vetted through faculty at Andrews University.

The courses that we offer through this partnership can be petitioned as part of their electives into a degree program if the student decides to pursue higher education at Andrews University. Once a student completes a course their grade will show as graduate level credit on an official Andrews University transcript.

The courses offered with Andrews University and Advancement Courses can be found on our web page at <https://www.andrews.edu/sed/cce/programs/index.html#advancedcourses>.

Beginning July 1, 2022, Andrews University, in partnership with Advancement Courses will offer select courses for Michigan State Continuing Education Clock Hours (SCECH).

Andrews University is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission and a member of the North Central Association www.ncahlc.org. The College of Education & International Services at Andrews University is accredited by the Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation \(CAEP\). Our Teacher Preparation Programs are ranked as one of the best in the state of Michigan according to the Michigan Board of Education.

We are compliant with NC-SARA; National Council for State Authorization Reciprocity Agreements and are listed as one of the universities that comply.
